CAMPANIA FALANGHINA 2022

Tasted by: ERIC GUIDO, March 2024

Drinking Window: 2024 - 2027

Like a basket of ripe peaches accentuated by hints of chamomile and lime zest, the 2022 Falanghina makes itself known in the glass. This is soft-textured yet lifted in feel, with pretty notes of green melon and sour citrus that swirl beneath a perfumed air of inner florals. It tapers off with a mineral tinge and medium length, leaving a pleasantly bitter sensation to linger.
